Ian Morrison

Biography

Author, Consultant, and Futurist

Ian is an internationally known author, consultant, and futurist specializing in long-term forecasting and planning with particular emphasis on health care and the changing business environment. He combines research and consulting skills with an incisive Scottish wit to help public and private organizations plan their longer-term future.

Ian has written, lectured, and consulted on a wide variety of forecasting, strategy, and health care topics for government, industry, and a variety of nonprofit organizations in North America, Europe, and Asia. He has spoken to a range of audiences from the boards of Fortune 100 companies to the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences in Beijing. Ian has worked with more than 100 Fortune 500 companies in health care, manufacturing, information technology, and financial services. Recent client sponsors include XL Capital, Pfizer and Kaiser Permanente. He is a frequent commentator on the future for television, radio, and the print media.

Ian is the author of Healthcare in the New Millennium: Vision, Values and Leadership (Jossey-Bass, 2002). His previous book: The Second Curve - Managing The Velocity of Change (Ballantine, 1996) was a New York Times Business Bestseller and Businessweek Bestseller. Ian has co-authored several books and chapters, including Future Tense: The Business Realities of the Next Ten Years (William Morrow, 1994) and Looking Ahead at American Health Care (McGraw-Hill, 1988). He also has co-authored numerous journal articles for publications such as Chief Executive, Encyclopaedia Britannica, Across the Board, The British Medical Journal, New England Journal of Medicine, and Health Affairs.

Ian is President Emeritus of the Institute for the Future (IFTF) and Chair of IFTF's Health Advisory Panel. Ian is a founding partner in Strategic Health Perspectives a joint venture between Harris Interactive and the Harvard School of Public Health's Department of Health Policy and Management. From 1996-1999, Ian was retained by Accenture (formerly Andersen Consulting) as Chairman of the Health Futures Forum. In that capacity, Ian chaired a number of international forums on the future of healthcare.

Before coming to IFTF in 1985, Ian spent seven years in British Columbia, Canada, in a variety of research, teaching, and consulting positions. He holds an interdisciplinary Ph.D. in urban studies from the University of British Columbia; an M.A. in geography from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and a graduate degree in urban planning from the University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England). He is a member of the Board of Directors of Spherion Corporation (an NYSE company); a past director of the Health Research and Education Trust (HRET), the research and education arm of the American Hospital Association; a director of the California Health Care Foundation; and a director of the Center for Healthcare Design. Ian also serves as a member of the Stakeholders Advisory Committee of the Program on Health System Improvement at Harvard University.

St. Jude Parking Overview

June 2009

Throughout the month of July, St. Jude will provide employees and volunteers with new parking assignments. Employees and volunteers will receive their specific parking assignment and start date in the near future. Great time and effort has been taken to create a workable plan to provide everyone with parking access. We are hopeful this solution will address our parking challenges. We will continue to monitor and evaluate the plan to ensure employees, physicians and volunteers, as well as visitors have access to convenient, safe parking.

- 1 Harbor Parking Structure: Level 2 and above
Non-exempt/hourly employees, as assigned
Volunteers
Contract employees
Off-site employees visiting hospital
Physicians will have access to perimeter parking.
- 2 Bastanchury Parking Structure: Any level, except spaces reserved for physicians
